Rev. John Gill, Pastor

Welcome, Guests!

- ◆ We are happy you are worshiping with us! Help us get to know you by completing the Mims Connect Card in your bulletin (place it in the offering plate). You are always welcome here!
- ◆ If you have small children, they are welcome to stay in the service. We are glad to provide child-care for infants and toddlers, by request. Speak to an usher.
- ◆ Communion, available every Saturday evening and the first Sundays of the month at Sunday morning services, is open to all those who wish to receive, regardless of membership.
- ◆ Our sanctuary is historic, so originally we had an outhouse! Thankfully, restrooms are now accessible by exiting the main doors of the sanctuary, following the sidewalk to the right (west) around the building and through the side door. Another set of restrooms is available in the Fellowship Hall, at the north end of the building.
- ◆ If you have no local church home, we would love for you to consider joining our congregation, either as a full or affiliate (seasonal) member. To unite with our church, indicate this on your

Bible Study

Beginning May 6, Pastor John will lead a new six week study on "Christianity and World Religions" (similar to the denominational study we did). No cost or registration required. Choose 10:00 a.m. or 6:30 p.m.

On Mission Together Weekend, May 17, 18, 19

Big Weekend at Mims UMC! Don't miss all the excitement! On Friday night, we will be holding a fellowship dinner and conversation about the future of our church. Bring a pot-luck dish at 5:00 p.m., then enjoy a time of music and conversation. Dinner will be served at 6:00 p.m. Then, Saturday morning through lunch/BBQ, we will be putting on a huge block party to officially dedicate our new Bike ministry. There will be live bands, great food, and lots of fun. We are specifically inviting our neighbors and the cycling community to join us! On Saturday evening, we will enjoy an Ice Cream Social at 6:00 p.m., followed by a special musical service at 7:00 p.m. Sunday morning, our service (at 10:00 a.m.) will celebrate our One Mission Together Weekend, and everyone will be invited to write down their ideas and insights on post-it notes and affix them to poster boards to form the "seeds" to spark new conversations about where God wants us to go as a church in the future. DON'T MISS ANY OF IT! If you have questions or are wanting to help, contact Julie Harrison, who is coordinating the weekend (321-704-9499).

A Word From Our New Pastor

I have been a Pastor for 14 years. I was a part time Pastor for the first 5 years, after I retired from 18 years in the Funeral Industry. I'm married to Toni, we have one daughter, her name is Lynn, and we have one dog, his name is Thaddaeus. I love to fish and to be involved in the community. I love the United Methodist Church and the ways of John Wesley. I'm always looking for ministry ideas. I have an open door policy, and am available to anyone. ~Pastor Charley Watts. (If you would like to reach out to Pastor Charley, his address is 1579 River Road, Moore Haven, FL, 33471, and his e-mail address is pastorcharley05@gmail.com.)
