Rev. John Gill, Pastor

Welcome, Guests!

- ◆ We are happy you are worshiping with us! Help us get to know you by completing the Mims Connect Card in your bulletin (place it in the offering plate). You are always welcome here!
- ◆ If you have small children, they are welcome to stay in the service. We are glad to provide child-care for infants and toddlers, by request. Speak to an usher.
- ◆ Communion, available every Saturday evening and the first Sundays of the month at Sunday morning services, is open to all those who wish to receive, regardless of membership.
- ◆ Our sanctuary is historic, so originally we had an outhouse! Thankfully, restrooms are now accessible by exiting the main doors of the sanctuary, following the sidewalk to the right (west) around the building and through the side door. Another set of restrooms is available in the Fellowship Hall, at the north end of the building.
- ◆ If you have no local church home, we would love for you to consider joining our congregation, either as a full or affiliate (seasonal) member. To unite with our church, indicate this on your "Let's Connect" card, or contact Pastor John through the church office or his cell (321-794-0010).

A Word From Our New Pastor

I have been a Pastor for 14 years. I was a part time Pastor for the first 5 years. I retired after 18 years in the Funeral Industry. I'm married to Toni, we have one daughter, her name is Lynn, and we have one dog, his name is Thaddaeus. I love to fish and to be involved in the community. I love the United Methodist Church and the ways of John Wesley. I'm always looking for ministry ideas. I have an open door policy, and am available to everyone. ~Pastor Charley Watts. (If you would like to reach out to Pastor Charley, his address is 1579 River Road, Moore Haven, FL, 33471, and his e-mail address is pastorcharley05@gmail.com.)
